

Hi Rory,

Thanks for your e-mail about Mikey – he does look like a special little guy. I will keep checking the website and I'm sure that when the time is right, the perfect little companion will become available.

And, although I've never met you, let me just say (as a former/future dog owner) a huge THANK YOU for being a responsible rescue organization – from what I read on the website I appreciate, and respect, the work that you do. I hope you and your organization and work are truly blessed because the dogs, and the adoptees, really need you!

Kindly,

Pam
